

Lions at the Library

Dr. CJ's Not So Sci-Fi Tale about Lion Genetics

Monday, April 10th • 6:00 - 7:45pm • Virtual Travel Center

How much have lions changed in only 100 years?

Dr. Caitlin J. Curry has spent years studying the genetic makeup of felines. On March 6, come hear about her research into the genetics of lions across space and time. This engaging lecture on genetics and conservation will be followed by a Q & A period where you can learn even more about these majestic felines.
