In celebration of One Book One San Diego's selection of the graphic novel March by John Lewis, we want young artists to be able to express what freedom and civil rights mean to them.

1. Draw inside the blank space provided.
2. Submit your entry to the PB Library by November 30th and please do not forget to write your name, age, and contact information.
3. The winning design will be used to create library bookmarks. All submitted artwork becomes property of the library and may not be returned.
4. Be creative and have fun! Winner(s) will receive library prizes!
