

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

Caitlin Rother

The Most Notorious Crime of the 20th Century:
New Details Revealed About the Manson Family Murders

Saturday, August 3, 2019 • 12:30 pm

Hunting Charles Manson, which Caitlin Rother co-authored with Lis Wiehl, takes a fresh look at the Manson Family murders of the summer of 1969 to offer a different and broader perspective on the murderous actions and "Helter Skelter" motive ascribed to Manson and his cult.

New York Times bestselling author Caitlin Rother has written or co-authored 13 books, ranging from narrative nonfiction to memoir and crime fiction. She is currently working on two new books, about the San Diego Zoo's Frozen Zoo and the Rebecca Zahau death case in Coronado.

Registration is encouraged:
<https://tinyurl.com/CRother-AoTM>

San Diego Central Library
@ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common
330 Park Blvd, 92101 • 619-236-5800

