

Start Your Business

Free Educational Programs for Entrepreneurs

BUSINESS FORMATION

Thursday, September 19 • 6:00-7:30 p.m. • Mary Hollis Conference Center

Are you starting a small business? An attorney from San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program will explain the advantages and disadvantages of the different business entity operations, including the potential fees, tax implications, and liability protections.

CONTRACTS

Wednesday, October 16 • 6:00-7:30 p.m. • Mary Hollis Conference Center

Every small business owner needs contracts to facilitate strong relationships and protect their assets. Come learn about contract basics, common contract myths and best practices for your business operations.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Wednesday, November 13 • 6:00-7:30 p.m. • Mary Hollis Conference Center

You may be one of thousands of people who start businesses each year in order to sell products and services. Find out about how intellectual property law may apply to your business.

PRESENTED BY OUR COMMUNITY EXPERTS

San Diego Central Library
@ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common
330 Park Blvd, 92101 • 619-236-5800

