

The Little Women Cookbook

Tuesday, March 10 • 7 - 9 p.m.
Shiley Special Event Suite

Haven't you always wanted to eat the food from your favorite books? Librarians Jenne Bergstrom and Miko Osada started a blog called 36 Eggs to explore the world of literary food, and ended up publishing The Little Women Cookbook. Join us for a fun conversation about historical recipes and the journey from reading to eating to writing.

The event will feature sample bites from The Little Women Cookbook & a special appearance by The Old Globe's Dramaturg, Danielle Mages Amato, to preview their upcoming production of Little Women starting March 14!
