Mexico Finally Recognizes Its Black Citizens

Saturday

March 14 • 4:00pm

Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center

Orgullosamente

Rumbo al Censo 2020

MANO AMIGA
DE LA COSTA CHICA A.C.

Join Afro-Mexican speaker Jorge Gonzalez for a stimulating discussion on the presence and history of peoples of African descent in Mexico. For the past 500 years, Afro-Mexicans have been omitted from Mexico's history, governmental rights, and society. Mexico was previously one of only two Latin American countries (with Chile) to not officially count their African-descended citizens.

Gonzalez is a first generation Mexican-American/Chicano border hybrid from San Diego and Tijuana. He directs the Afro-Mexican department at the WorldBeat Cultural Center.
