

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by
anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAYOFSILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by
anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!

DAY OF SILENCE

Please understand my reason for not speaking today.
I am participating in the Day of Silence (DoS). My deliberate silence echoes the silence caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name calling, and harassment.
I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today!