Our Time on this Planet: Courage, Tenderness & Valeria Luiselli

Tuesday, October 26 • 6 p.m. • Reading & Discussion

Join Logan Heights Library for a Books for Good Trouble program with educators and activists discussing Valeria Luiselli's books, how to get involved in classrooms and the community and how to build action campaigns. Attendees will receive a copy of one book by Luiselli to participate, while supplies last.

Valeria Luiselli is an award-winning Mexican author living in the United States. Her two most recent works, Tell me How this Ends: an essay in 40 questions (2017) and Lost Children Archive (2019) focus on immigration and are based off of her personal experiences.

Information and program content can be made available in alternative formats upon request. To request disability-related modifications or accommodations, please email JFRogers@sandiego.gov

This project was made possible in part by the Institute of Museum and Library Services.
