

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

Black History Month

Wanjirũ Warama

February 12, 2022 • 2:00—3:30 pm
Virtual Branch Library

The Colonized And the Scramble for Africa

Join us for an afternoon with Wanjiru Warama as she presents her powerful book based on her ancestors and their community or farmworkers' navigating through British colonial Kenya. This is the first of THE COLONIZED series.

Come for presentation, stay for the discussion and book signing.

Zoom link will be posted (within 24 hours of event) and emailed to registrants via the Library Calendar.

Registration is encouraged:
<https://tinyurl.com/Wanjiru22>

The Local Author Program is sponsored by the Friends of the Central Library

San Diego Central Library
@ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common
330 Park Blvd, 92101 • 619-236-5800
facebook.com/sandiegocentrallibrary

FRIENDS
OF THE CENTRAL LIBRARY

