

ASIAN AMERICAN JOY

A Celebration during Asian American & Pacific Islander Heritage Month
Saturday, May 20, 2023 from 12:00 p.m. to 3:25 p.m.
North University Community Library
8820 Judicial Dr., San Diego, CA 92122 - Carpooling is encouraged.

12:00-12:30 p.m. Bilingual Filipino Storytime by Dr. Joy Francisco, Ph.D.
Author and creator of Little Jeepney Books will read in Filipino and English and lead a fun activity.

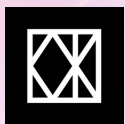

1:00-1:45 p.m. K-pop Dance Workshop by KOTX
UCSD student group KOTX will lead a dance workshop from K-pop (Korean Pop) song Candy by NCT.

2:00-2:20 p.m. Performance by Chinese Dance Association at UCSD
The Chinese Dance Association @ UC San Diego will performance traditional folk dance, an umbrella dance, a fan dance, and more.

2:30-2:50 p.m. Performance by Onkur Bangla Language Academy
The nonprofit Bangla language school will sing in Bangla and perform beautiful dances.

3:00-3:25 p.m. Performance by Samahan Filipino American Performing Arts & Education Center
Samahan will perform Filipino folk dances representing multiple ethnic groups across the archipelago.

This program was made possible by the generous support of the Friends of North University Community Library

For ADA accommodations, please contact JFRogers@sandiego.gov at least 72 hours prior to your visit.