

Exploring the Past

History Lectures

Jack C. Robinson,
OFM

• Tuesday,
August. 27th

A presentation on the Franciscans within the history of the Americas and how they understood themselves and the world around them. (Shiley Special Events Room)

Alfonso
De Limón

• Tuesday
September, 24th

The history of Gral., Hernando Limón Hernández, founder El Hispano Americano, a first-of-its-kind bilingual newspaper that was distributed on both sides of the US/Mexico border. (Shiley Special Events Room)

Morgan & Moore

• Tuesday
October, 22nd

Vicki Morgan and Yvette Porter Moore cover the life and times of Nathan "Nate" Harrison, the first African American landowner in San Diego. (Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center)

David Smollar

• Monday
November 4th

Back by popular demand, cartophile David Smollar shares his knowledge and love of some of the most unique, original and engaging maps of San Diego. (Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center)

Catherine Eng

• Tuesday
November 19th

Using XR to visualize the history of the Bay to Park Paseo, a 1.7-mile walking experience along Park Boulevard through downtown from San Diego Bay to Balboa Park. (Neil Morgan Auditorium)

Each event starts at 6:30 pm

San Diego Central Library
@ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common
330 Park Blvd, 92101 • 619-238-6668
facebook.com/sandiegocentrallibrary

