CULTURAL RESILIENCE TO CLIMATE TRAUMA

Monday, October 7 • 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.
California State University San Marcos | Kellogg Library

Jen Soriano (she/they) is a Filipinx-American lyric essayist, award-winning writer, independent scholar and multi-disciplinary performer. This program features a reading from their book NERVOUS: Essays on Heritage and Healing, and a discussion of the ways that literature, indigenous stewardship and cultural practices of collectivism can buffer against trauma from climate disruption and contribute to climate resilience.
