

Preserving Black History in San Diego

A Conversation with Yvette Porter Moore facilitated by Makena Gargonnu

Monday, November 25, 2024

6:30pm - 8:00pm

Shiley Special Events Suite | 9th Floor

Join genealogist, public historian and cultural practitioner Yvette Porter Moore of Root Digger Genealogy Research Services for an illuminating talk and discussion on researching, documenting, and archiving Black History in San Diego. Despite its emergence as the 2nd largest city in California and a top 10 city in the nation, San Diego's Black population has historically been smaller than most other large metropolitan areas of the country. Businesswoman and celebrity event producer Makena Gargonnu will be in conversation with Ms. Porter Moore.
