

In celebration of Jane Austen's 250th and lasting influence!

Jane Austen from the Margins

Join us for an evening with Jane Austen scholar and UCSD professor of literature Lillian Lu discusses the historical context of Austen's time and the literary, cultural, and political worlds of her six novels. She also takes a deep dive into Austen's famous style, free indirect discourse, and connects it to contemporary Asian diasporic adaptations of Austen's work.
