

SENIOR READERS THEATRE

Presented by Write Out Loud

Your Seniors Read Literature Aloud!

This Program Will:

- Enhance retention, confidence, self-esteem and a positive attitude.
- Increase physical, cognitive and social well-being.
- Encourage community engagement.
- Provide entertainment for Residents, Family and Friends.
- Create an environment of joy and laughter.

Activities Director Will:

- Connect a Write Out Loud Artist to interested participants.
- Assist WOL staff to schedule meetings/rehearsals/performances.

Senior Actors Will:

- Help select and interpret literary material.
- Form and strengthen community with their peers, through rehearsals and performance*.
- Study the script, characters and motivation.
- Laugh together!
- Become the STARS of the show!

Write Out Loud Will:

- Guide the selection of literary material.
- Direct the actors to interpret the literature - in order to create an engaging performance for family, friends and residents.
- Provide sufficient copies of selected material.
- Provide refreshments at performances (optional).

*Reading ONLY! No memorization required.
We anticipate 3 rehearsals prior to each performance.

If you are interested - Please contact
Pamela Brittain
brittainpj@att.net or 619-300-6537

Funding provided by the National Endowment for the Arts

PREBYS
FOUNDATION

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT for the ARTS
arts.gov

Audrey S. Geisel
San Diego Foundation/
Dr. Seuss Fund

™ & © 1958 Dr. Seuss Enterprises, L.P. All Rights Reserved