

Villa Musica at Malcolm X Library

Spring Quarter: April 6th through June 8th 2019

Electronic Beat Making, ages 12-18, Saturdays from 2:00-3:00pm

Come learn how to record, edit, and produce your very own music tracks! This ten-week course will be held right here in the Teen IDEA Lab at the Malcolm X Branch Library and will give you all the tools you need to start composing your own creative musical ideas. After completing this course, you will be able to create original sounds on programs that can be accessed by any computer.

A donation at Tier I, II, or III is appreciated but not required to participate.
See reverse side for our tiered donation information.

Villa Musica Donation Program

Our flexible three-tiered donation program lets you choose the donation that's best for you. Based on the honor system, this program helps us keep Villa Musica classes and camps available to every student, regardless of their family's financial situation. This program is completely confidential. Each student participates equally in music classes and camps, regardless of the donation paid.

- Tier I covers the true cost of providing music classes and camps. Please donate at Tier I whenever possible so we can continue to provide highly qualified teaching artists, instruments, and materials.

Suggested donation $160

- Tier II is partially subsidized for families unable to donate the entire cost.

Suggested donation $80

- Tier III is heavily subsidized for families unable to donate Tier I or II prices.

Suggested donation $40

- Financial assistance is available for those who cannot afford to donate at Tier III.
