

Jean Guerrero

Conversation with an Author

Crossing Borders In Search Of A Father

Wednesday
December 12, 2018
6 pm—7:30pm
Shiley Special Events Suite

Join KPBS journalist Jean Guerrero and Los Angeles Times reporter Richard Marosi for a stimulating conversation about her PEN-award-winning book, *Crux: A Cross-Border Memoir*, and the most important 2018 U.S.-Mexico border stories, from family separations to the Trump administration's response to the caravan. Crux is about Guerrero's quest to understand her charismatic and troubled Mexican father, who crosses borders between countries, between madness and sanity, and more. Jean Guerrero is an Emmy-winning investigative border and immigration reporter for KPBS in San Diego.

Richard Marosi is a two-Time Pulitzer Prize finalist whose investigative reporting on Mexico's most vulnerable populations has led to improved conditions for them on both sides of the border.

Registration is encouraged:

<https://tinyurl.com/conversation-Crux>

Parking is free with 2 hour validation

<https://www.facebook.com/sandiegocentrallibrary/>

One Book
ONE SAN DIEGO

