Manuelita Brown: A Life in Art

Wednesday, March 21 • 6:30 pm • Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center

Join us for an evening of art and conversation with award-winning San Diego fine art sculptor, Manuelita Brown. Ms. Brown specializes in bronze figurative and portrait sculpture. Notable works include several pieces at UCSD including statues of Sojourner Truth, King Triton, and a bust of Thurgood Marshall. Ms. Brown has been honored with numerous awards, juried shows and exhibitions throughout San Diego and the United States.

Co-sponsored with the current San Diego History Center exhibit Legacy in Black curated by the San Diego African American Museum of Fine Arts.
