

The Fire in Me

Sunday, March 10 • 2:00-4:30 p.m.
9th Floor, Shiley Special Events Suite

In partnership with the Asian Story Theater and Access Inc., playwright Thelma Virata de Castro interviewed diverse community members in order to write "The Fire In Me," a theatrical exploration of domestic violence in San Diego's Filipino community. Following the performance, there will be a panel discussion on domestic violence in the context of culture, immigration status and gender roles. Due to mature content, this play is recommended for ages 18 and up. For more information, visit the website:

<http://www.thefireinme2019.com>.

This program was made possible thanks to grant support from The San Diego Foundation, www.sdfoundation.org and support from California Humanities, a non-profit partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Visit www.calhum.org. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of California Humanities or the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Refreshments will be served.

Please register on our online Event Calendar:

<https://sandiego.librarymarket.com/fire-me>

San Diego Central Library
@ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common
330 Park Blvd, 92101 • 619-236-5800
facebook.com/sandiegocentrallibrary

